FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE PRESS-ENTERPRISE NAMES RCTC A WINNER OF THE INLAND EMPIRE 2016 TOP WORKPLACES AWARD

The Riverside County Transportation Commission (RCTC) has been awarded a 2016 Top Workplaces honor by The Press-Enterprise.

The Top Workplaces lists are based solely on the results of an employee feedback survey administered by WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. Several aspects of workplace culture were measured, including Alignment, Execution, and Connection, just to name a few.

“The Top Workplaces award is not a popularity contest. And oftentimes, people assume it’s all about fancy perks and benefits.” says Doug Claffey, CEO of WorkplaceDynamics. “But to be a Top Workplace, organizations must meet our strict standards for organizational health. And who better to ask about work life than the people who live the culture every day—the employees. Time and time again, our research has proven that what’s most important to them is a strong belief in where the organization is headed, how it’s going to get there, and the feeling that everyone is in it together. Claffey adds, “Without this sense of connection, an organization doesn’t have a shot at being named a Top Workplace.”

“While we a have a small staff, we accomplish so many positive things for the residents of Riverside County,” said Anne Mayer, Executive Director. “We can only do that by attracting the best people and ensuring that we maintain a workplace that provides a combination of challenges and support to maintain an exceptional workforce.”

ABOUT RCTC

The Riverside County Transportation Commission was created by state law in 1976 and serves as Riverside County’s primary transportation funding agency. The organization is governed by a 34-member Board of Directors comprised of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors an elected city council representative from every city in the county and a non-voting member appointed by the Governor. A primary responsibility of RCTC is to administer the voter-approved Measure A, half-cent sales tax for transportation.
